Max duration (weeks): 1

Aims & Objectives

The purpose of this program is to help you get an understanding of the manners, norms, and etiquette that is inherent in Indian society as well as show you around and introduce you to your new surroundings.

Schedule

Monday to Friday

The week will be action-packed. In your schedule will be:

India: Culture, religion, habits, customs, history, geography, social issues, are some of the topics that we will introduce you through group discussions, lectures, debates, visits, outings, etc.

Language Lessons: A first contact with an Indian language and you will learn a few phrases to get by in Hindi languages. India has 18 official languages, and more than 1500 dialects and sub-dialects. We will start by teaching you only one! Do not forget that English is widely spoken all throughout the country.

Projects: An overview of the projects, and an explanation and presentation of your particular placement. There will also be project visits on site.

Information: And lots of new things will be introduced to you including some sessions on yoga, self-defense techniques, cooking, team building, team work, project work, customs & habits, do's & don'ts, technical information, emergency situations, habits & behaviors.

Local sightseeing and meeting people: We will make you feel right at home. You will have the opportunity to visit market places, Indian homes, and natural sites in groups or individually during free time.

Group games and discussions: It will be the style of operating of our coordinators at the orientation week to make the theoretical sessions as dynamic as possible.

This schedule can be changed and/or amended depending on weather conditions, local conditions and unforeseen circumstances.
